

DANIELA RETTORE

ITALY

What interested you about becoming a photographer?

– I have been intrigued by the art of photography as early as 14 when I received my first camera as a birthday present. I can still recall taking pictures of every single person entering my house. I love to show the inner beauty of everyone in a fashion and chic way.

Where do you find inspiration to make your photographs?

– from every interesting person /location/ events I'm dealing with...I give a look around and I ask myself I can I show and transmit my feelings in a single pictures.

What do you most like to photograph?

– fashion and portrait

Who are your favorite photographers?

– peter lindbergh, mario testino, steve meisel, helmut newton
